

The Great Migration Maze

Salt Marshes are great places for baby animals to grow up. There is protection, shelter, and lots of food to eat. Once they are big enough some animals will leave the salt marsh and go to live in deeper waters of the bays or Gulf of Mexico. Can you help this juvenile fish find its way safely past all the predators to the Gulf of Mexico?

START

FINISH